Enzyme Immunity Blend

This advanced, multi-pathway immune support formula is strategically designed to strengthen the body's natural defense systems. By combining specialized lytic enzymes with powerful antioxidants, it helps defend against oxidative stress, support healthy microbial balance, and promote a resilient internal environment. In addition, metabolic-support enzymes assist in maintaining efficient nutrient utilization and overall physiological balance. The result is comprehensive immune, digestive, and cellular support designed to help the body perform at its highest potential.

Key Highlights

How Enzyme Immunity Blend Supports You

- Powerful blend of all natural enzymes and potent antioxidant herbs that supports the body's natural healing ability and promotes healthy immune system response. It includes plant and microbial proteases, along with a combination of antioxidant, and immunostimulatory enzymes and herbs.
- Featuring naturally derived Lysozyme, Rutin, Catalase, Chitosanase, and Lipase, it works synergistically to help defend against harmful bacteria and yeast, combat oxidative stress, and promote healthy fat metabolism
- Packed with powerful antioxidants and immune-support nutrients, this formula helps protect cells from everyday stress while supporting digestive health and natural immune defenses. With Grape Seed, Acai, Curcumin, Colostrum, and Aloe Vera, it's a complete wellness blend designed to help you feel balanced, supported, and energized.
